FIELD REPORT

The 2019 vintage started with a warm spring and summer which provided excellent growth through veraison. The fall temperatures were cooler, allowing for a slower ripening season. This resulted in reds that have lower alcohol, ripe red fruit notes, and a balanced acidity.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

Merlot being the backbone of the blend gives approachability and fruit-forward flavours, while the other varietals support and add complexity to the wine. The individual components were separately harvested, fermented, and aged in 20% new French oak before final blending.

TASTING NOTES

Notes of dark chocolate and vanilla are showcased on the nose, with silky tannins rounding out a lengthy finish. This is a new vintage of an old favourite. Perfect for pairing with burgers or brisket.
